

International Associations

At RTR we are committed to sourcing international associations to benefit the New Zealand fashion industry. We have developed extensive recruitment relations and networks covering the United Kingdom, Australia and South Africa. Careers Expo

We currently attend the annual New Zealand Opportunities Expo held in the United Kingdom in October. Representing the Fashion industry to potential returning Kiwi's and new Kiwi's, we ensure that the pool of talent immigrating to this country has representation in New Zealand www.smallworldmedia.co.nz UK Contacts

With associations with our 'sister company' in the United Kingdom who specializes in Fashion industry recruitment in manufacture, import, supply, textiles and retail we can offer our candidates looking for the big 'Overseas Experience' competent and effective representation in the wider international market. Register online www.fashionpersonnel.co.uk With a candidate flow both ways, at RTR, we also benefit from talented immigrants from the United Kingdom looking for work in New Zealand. T.E.A.M Alliance

As a member of the T.E.A.M. alliance, RTR has networks with a number of local and international recruitment agencies which work together to provide candidates for each other's respective niche markets. Recruitment is a strong referral industry and at RTR we recognize the importance of working together to seek out talented and vibrant people for the fashion market. Australian Market

An exciting new development this year is the association with two major fashion recruitment companies in Australia. Mirroring our networks in the United Kingdom, these links provide benefits to our clients and candidates alike. Register online with www.morganconsulting.com.au & www.epoch.biz Working In

Talented immigrants from around the world will also find RTR listed with Working In New Zealand and can visit our site on line or peruse our details in the annual Working In magazine, a first point of contact for many potential immigrants looking for opportunities in this country.