

Product Development / Buyer

Monday, 26 July 2010

Product Development / Buyer, with experience working for a major fashion retailer. Responsible for overseeing garments throughout the entire process.

Area Required:

Auckland Industry Experience:

Product Development / Buyer, with experience working for a major fashion retailer. Responsible for overseeing garments throughout the entire process. Gaining valuable skills in product development, planning and sales analysis she has excellent communication skills, liaising with suppliers and building strong relationships. Along with these skills she has garment construction knowledge and previous experience working as a production co-ordinator. Aspirations:

Always seeking a challenge, she is looking for an opportunity to develop and gain new skills in a Buying or Merchandise Manager role. Profile:

Hardworking and friendly with a positive attitude, with enthusiasm and experience she has a lot to offer.