

Area Retail Manager

Monday, 26 July 2010

Area Retail Manager, she has been working in the retail industry for over 10 years working her way up from Retail Assistant to Buyer and Stock Controller and most recently Regional Manager.

Area Required:

AnyIndustry Experience:

Area Retail Manager, she has been working in the retail industry for over 10 years working her way up from Retail Assistant to Buyer and Stock Controller and most recently Regional Manager. Within her role she has built up strong relationships with suppliers and reps, negotiating buyer's terms, travelling to other stores to ensure top visual merchandising, discussing KPIs and store targets as well as staff training and stock control. She has excellent communication and sales skills and a thorough understanding of merchandising. Aspirations:

Enjoys working part of team, meeting new people and growing relationships. She is looking for a job where she can gain new skills in a role she is passionate about. Profile:

Loyal, hardworking, with great energy and passion. She has a lot of initiative and strategic skills and is a natural at sales and leading teams.